20-004249                      1/12/2020 6:50:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      7951 E Brainerd Rd

On 01/13/2020 at 2010 hours, I Officer Winkelman 636, reported a continuation at 7951 E Brainerd Rd. Police were responding back to the Regions Bank on an ATM machine that did not count and give Ms. Laura Henderson her receipt because her deposit jammed the ATM machine and had to have a technician come out and fix it. The technician's name was Glenn Hamill. Mr. Hamill stated when an ATM machine jams, it automatically dispatches to him to get fixed. Mr. Hamill stated by policy he could not take Ms Henderson's money out of the ATM to give back to her. Ms. Henderson was very irate the whole time and did not understand why he could not do that. And also kept blaming "the man in the machine" that he was taking her money. Ms. Henderson was told several times that she needed to contact the bank in the morning to complete the transaction. She also stated she did not count the money before she deposited, so she was unsure how much was put in. Police told Ms. Henderson that if she did not know how much money was deposited, then how would police or anyone else. Mr. Hamill stated you can only put 70 bills in the machine at one time and she had put 83 in. Mr. Hamill stated he unjammed the following bills out of the ATM and placed them into their appropriate space in the machine;

41 qty - $1
19 qty - $100
20 qty - $20
3 qty - $5

20-004664                      1/13/2020 7:30:00PM                      23C Shoplifting                      2100 Hamilton Place Blvd

On 01/13/2020 at 20:06 hours, Officer N. Gurnsey (79875) responded to a Shoplifting at 2100 Hamilton Place Blvd. At approximately 1930 hours a man entered the upstairs Kay Jewelers at the Hamilton Place mall. He was described by Kay employee, Verrita McGoy, as being tall, over 6 ft of average build with short hair worn naturally. This man was black, in his twenties and wearing boots, pants, a solid colored t shirt and a "cream" colored jacket with a dark design resembling paint splatter. This man, the suspect, entered Kay from the West, near Belk. He waited to be helped for several minutes before sitting down at a counter in the Southwestern corner of the store. Ms. McGoy sat across the counter from the suspect to assist him. He asked to see two separate diamond engagement rings. The first was a 3 ct "round brilliant" cut set in a 14ct white gold band (valued at $22,299.) This diamond has been microscopically inscribed with GS162400101. The second was a 2.01 ct "Leo Round" cut diamond set in a 14 ct white gold band (valued at $25,599.) It was inscribed with LEO2129566. The suspect then asked to compare the rings, Ms. McGoy never willingly relinquished control of the diamonds, but showed them to the suspect side by side. At which point the suspect grabbed both rings from her hands and fled through the employee corridor outside the upstairs entrance to Belk. The rings selected by the suspect were the most expensive in their respective cases. Kay does not have in house security cameras. Continuation to follow, once contact with the mall security office is made and security footage of the incident has been reviewed.

On 01/15/2020 at 17:58 hours, Officer N. Gurnsey (79875) wrote a continuation/supplement for a Shoplifting at 2100 Hamilton Place Blvd. Police made contact with Hamilton Place Mall security personnel to review footage leading up to the theft from Kay Jewelers. Police were able to locate the suspect on camera. A still from the video has been added to this report via the Watson online app.
