21-006394 1/20/2021 3:36:00AM 91Z Prowler 900 Mountain Creek Rd

On 01/20/2021 at 03:36 hours, Officer M.Robinson (77583) conducted a Field Interview at 900 Mountain Creek Rd. HCSO Deputy Meyners (2W1) observed two male parties walking around vehicles at the above address. When the deputy circled around to make contact with the parties he noticed that they had removed a backpack and stated that they were walking to the gas station. The parties were detained as other officers arrived on scene. The backpack was hidden in the bushes where the deputy originally saw the parties. Inside the backpack was a dewalt battery operated sawzall with several batteries and metal blades inside. The parties were identified as Robert Cox and Jason Troxell. Mr. Cox was in possession of the backpack. A RBPD officer that was also on scene recognized Mr. Cox from arresting him just last week, were Mr. Cox was observed by police actively cutting a catalytic converter off a vehicle. Mr. Cox stated that he lives nearby at 1092 Glendale Dr. Mr. Troxell stated that he lives at 900 Mountain Creek Rd. Apt. F368 with his brother. Officers later discovered from property management that Mr. Troxell is not allowed on the property and was previously banned. The sawzall had metal shavings under the blade guard indicating it's use to cut metal objects. The ten or more sawzall blades contained within the backpack were all blades designed to cut metal. An operational flashlight was also found within the backpack. The deputy will be taking the suspicious items associated with catalytic converter thefts to HCSO property as he was the primary officer. It should be noted that CubeSmart Storage next door to this location has had several catalytic thefts, and both parties live within walking distance. No further at this time.

On 01/21/2021 at 12:40 hours, Officer Orsburn (66495) reported a memo at 6231 Perimeter Dr.
I arrived on scene and spoke with Ladana Bullard. She was upset that Planet Fitness had been charging her account even though she canceled it. She said she talked to Jaclyn Bower over the phone and they told her they would refund her the $23.06 from this months charges. She said that when she got to Planet Fitness they told her that they could refund the $23.06 but she would owe the back unpaid part of the contract that is $200. She was mad because they did not tell her about this over the phone
I spoke with Jaclyn Bower and she said that Ms. Bullard had 2 options 1st she can get the $23.06 refund and pay the passed due $200 or she could not get the $23.06 refund and they would close out the whole account and waive the passed due $200. Ms. Bower said if she wasn't happy with those options Ms. Bullard could call cooperate office and speak with them directly. Ms. Bower said that Ms. Bullard refused to leave after explaining all this so she called Police. Ms. Bower just wanted Ms. Bullard off the property at this point. I told Ms. Bullard that she needed to leave Planet Fitness and call Cooperate office. No further.
