20-013901 2/9/2020 12:08:00AM 91Z Runaway 3508 3rd Ave

On 02/17/2020 I attempted to call the complainant, listed as mother, Michaela Majoa, and left a message at the machine of [REDACTED]. I looked up a previous report, which there are several, and found the complainant, also listed as the mother, Marcaela Lopez, and called the number listed on that report at [REDACTED]. That number is no longer active. Status: Pending.

20-013926 2/9/2020 12:50:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 3743 E Abercrombie Cir

On 02/09/2020 at 01:00 hours, Officer Ziegler (83701) reported a memo at 3743 E Abercrombie Cir. Chattanooga Fire Department had to force entry into the 3743 E Abercrombie residence to assist Mr. Leinart because he had fallen. Chattanooga Fire Department broke a small glass pane on the rear door to be able to unlock it from the inside. Fire assisted Mr. Leinart but he did not wish to be transported to the hospital. A police report was written up for Mr. Leinart's insurance for the rear door. No further police action was taken.

20-013952 2/9/2020 3:50:00AM 23C Shoplifting 1330 E 3rd St

On 02/09/2020 at 03:55 hours, Officer Adam Krystaponis (75508) responded to a Shoplifting at 1330 E 3rd St. I spoke with Ms. Forester, the clerk, who stated that a black male dressed in all black and wearing a black toboggan attempted to steal an entire box of Honey Buns. Ms. Forester stated that she observed the suspect putting the box of Honey Buns in his jacket, but she confronted him. She informed me that she made him put the box down, and he may have kept a few of them in his jacket, but then he fled the scene headed East on E 3rd St. I was unable to locate anyone matching that description on my arrival from that direction. With no property confirmed stolen, I instructed Ms. Forester to call us back if he returned (whether he was stealing or not) so this person could be trespassed from the property. No further.

On 02/10/2020 at 23:55 hours, Officer CREIGHTON (73490) Responded to a Crash at the 182 I-24 West Bound.

Once on scene police located an abandoned vehicle that had been involved in a wreck. At this time police ran the tag that was fixed to the vehicle (TN [REDACTED]) and found the tag didn't belong to the vehicle on scene. At this point police found the tag was stolen out of Knoxville TN on January 30th 2020 and entered into NCIC under NIC #T287068169. Police at this point ran the vin # of the vehicle on scene (VIN# 1G1AL58F187108317) and found that the vehicle itself was also stolen. At this point police had NCIC remove the vehicle and notify the owner of the vehicle that it had been recovered. Police at this point then called for a tow truck to remove the vehicle from the interstate. When police found vehicle #1 it had sustained damage to it's rear right side and front left side. Police at this point don't know the circumstances of the accident or exactly where the accident took place. Once again police found the vehicle abandoned and no suspect driver was on scene when police arrived. At this point police started a separate complaint number 20-014562 for stolen property recovery for the plate stolen out of Knoxville. In addition police will be completing a wreck report for the vehicle under complaint number 20-014549. The vehicle was towed by Expressway Towing to 2353 Rossville Blvd the address of the tow company. Lastly police had dispatch notify Knoxville that they needed to remove the tag from NCIC and entered the tag into NCIC.

1 Tow Sheet

Nothing further to report.

20-014862 2/11/2020 11:18:00PM 91Z Damaged Property Accidental 24 Interstate

On 02/11/2020 at 22:45 hours, Officer CREIGHTON (73490) responded to a Damaged Property Accidental at the 179 I-24 WB.

Once on scene police spoke with a Mr. Robert Griffin who stated while driving his FedEx truck a vehicle pulled behind him and began flashing it's high beams at him. At this point Mr. Griffin stated he changed lanes to allow the vehicle behind him to pass him. Mr. Griffin then told police the vehicle pulled in front of him and brake checked him multiple times in order to get him to pull over. Mr. Griffin then stated he pulled over and the vehicle in front of him pulled over as well. Police then spoke with a Mr. Roger Kennedy the driver of the passenger vehicle. Mr. Kennedy told police he was flashing his high beams at the FedEx truck due to the fact it was in the fast lane and traffic was forming behind him. Mr. Kennedy then stated the truck changed lanes into the center lane and he pulled past it and then he pulled into the center lane in front of the truck to allow traffic behind him to pass. Mr. Kennedy then stated the truck pulled into the right lane and got side by side with his vehicle. It was at this point Mr. Kennedy stated he heard a noise and believed the truck driver threw an object at his window. Mr. Kennedy then stated both he and the FedEx truck driver pulled over and called the police.

Police at this time had no evidence to show that either drivers story were true and had no way evidence to show how or when Mr. Kennedy's window was broken. At this time both drivers were issued complaint cards. Due to no evidence to confirm either drivers story on scene and police did not pursue any criminal action against either driver. Lastly Mr. Kennedy valued his window at $1,000 dollars damage to be replaced.

Nothing further to report.
