21-046722 5/9/2021 12:30:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 315 Gillespie Rd

On 05/09/2021 at 01:30 hours, Officer K. Hughes (0062192) reported a miscellaneous call at 315 Gillespie Rd., the Chambliss Center. Ms. Billingsley works security there during the night. She called police to report a suspicious person seen walking inside of the building. The was, however, a misunderstanding between her and CPD communication's call-taker, who wrote a line on the card that said the complainant believes the suspicious person may be an employee of Chambliss. Believing the caller is an outsider looking in, I knew there were employees in the building, and did not hurry to the call. The complainant called again, asking to speak with officers. Upon arrival, we cleared the confusion. Because she was not clear who it was, except a black male, she would only feel secure if we checked the building. So, I called Officer K. Allen to the scene and we cleared the entire building with the help of maintenance, and found no suspicious person. No further.

21-047002 5/9/2021 11:10:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2333 Mccallie Ave

On 05/09/2021 at 23:14 hours, Officer M. Dagostino (82257) reported a memo at 2333 Mccallie Ave. I made contact with Mr. Newsom who reported he thought people were following him earlier in the evening and he was in fear. Mr. Newsom informed me several vehicles were behind him while he was driving. Mr. Newsom believed while he stopped at a gas station earlier one of them may have slashed his tire because it went flat. On scene, I inspected the tire and could not see any evidence of an intentional puncture however it appeared a section of the tire had blown out. Ms. Havis was in the vehicle and did not believe anyone was following them. Mr. Newsom requested I follow him home to ensure he got home safe. I followed behind him to his address without incident. Nothing further.

21-047034 5/10/2021 2:51:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 440 W Martin Luther King Blvd

On 05/10/2021 at approximately 02:53 hours, Officer M Estock (82259) and Officer D Johnston #855 assisted a citizen at 440 W Martin Luther King Blvd.

Upon arrival to listed address, Officer Johnston and I observed a man, later identified as Mr. Michael Lanford, sitting in an electric scooter in the middle of the roadway. An EPB employee was already on scene with his vehicle's emergency lights activated to keep any potential traffic from unintentionally hitting Mr. Lanford.

As we made contact with Mr. Lanford, he informed us that he was attempting to return home to 959 Gateway Ave. Apt. 222 when his electric wheel chair lost batter charge while in the road. Officer Johnston and I pushed Mr. Lanford in his wheel chair into the Holiday Inn lobby to get him out of the roadway and rain. Mr. Lanford requested I relocate to his apartment to retrieve his wheel chair charger. I checked with Holiday Inn management, and they stated Mr. Lanford is welcome to charge his chair at this location.

I relocated to Mr. Lanford's residence, recovered his charger, and returned to Holiday Inn. Once Mr. Lanford's wheel chair was plugged in he stated he needed no further assistance.

No further.

290 Vandalism

5799 Brainerd Rd

On 05/10/2021 at 13:05 hours, Officer Frazier (68396) responded to a Vandalism at 5799 Brainerd Rd. Upon arrival, police spoke with victim Taylor Neely. Taylor stated that she was riding in her vehicle, a red Land Range Rover (TN [REDACTED]), with her father (Emmette Neely) who was driving. Taylor stated that they stopped around the 5300 block of Brainerd Road in order to let a fire truck and police apparatus by. At this point, a gray VW SUV (TN) started to honk at them. Taylor stated that her father could not move because the fire and police were coming through. So, through up his hands inside the car telling the vehicle directly behind them that they could not move. Next, the Range Rover began moving again and this is when the VW started driving erratically around them. The light turned red around the block of 490 View Drive and so Taylor and her father had to stop. At this point, a male driver and female passenger (African-American) pulled up to the right side of the Range Rover and got out of the vehicle. The black male (wearing a gray) tapped on the drivers side door. stated that the suspect could have had a gun but was unsure. Also, the female began hitting the rear right side of the Range Rover and ripped off the gas door. The two then got back in the VW and fled the scene. Police are currently investigating this case and will update as needed.

21-047297 5/10/2021 5:31:00PM 91Z Damaged Property Accidental 1201 Riverfront Pkwy

On 05/10/2021 at 17:40 hours, Officer T. PLUNKETT (079536) responded to a Damaged Property Accidental at 1201 Riverfront Pkwy.

Police were called to the above address, upon arrival; police spoke with the driver and owner of Ross Logistics LLC. The driver of that vehicle is identified as Mr. Alex Ross, he stated that he was dropping off USPS vehicles and had to remove an Infiniti FX45 from the trailer. While off-loading USPS vehicles Ross removed the Infiniti from the trailer. When it came time to place the vehicle back onto the trailer the vehicle would not start. Ross stated that he observed a roll back truck bearing the name Downtown Automotive off-loading USPS trucks also. Ross stated that he approached a white male later identified as Jeff Brown. Ross asked Brown if he could assist him with getting the vehicle back onto the trailer, Ross said that Brown told he would meet him over by the vehicle in a minute. Brown and a black male identified only as Jerald arrived and began to assist Ross and his son. Ross stated that Brown and the Jerald loaded the vehicle up onto the roll back and maneuvered it to the back of the trailer. Brown and Jerald told Ross's son identified as Skylard Ross to get into the driver seat and let off the brake. Before telling Skylard to do so Brown was said to have told Jerald to let the chains go so that the vehicle could be backed onto the trailer. Brown stated that he never said this and the trailer was up and shouldn't have been. Brown stated that the chains were never in place and he was just helping Ross out. Brown stated that there was never an agreed upon price and that he was just helping Ross. The owner of the vehicle was notified by Ross and the owner of the vehicle stated that he paid around 3500 dollars for the vehicle. The damage to the vehicle appeared to be more than 400 dollars as the back glass and trunk area was damaged. Police explained to Ross, Brown and the owner that at this time a report was being made and that insurance companies can be contacted if need be. The owner of the vehicle is located in Oak Ridge TN. Nothing further at this time.

21-047523 5/11/2021 11:00:00AM 250 Counterfeiting/Forgery 4809 Elmo Ave

On 05/11/2021 at 11:05 hours, Officer Kelley (86049) responded to a Counterfeiting/Forgery at 4809 Elmo Ave via telephone. When talking to the victim Francesco Pizzuto, he told police that he bought a piece of property from the suspect William Jones's mom. Mr. Pizzuto told police that he writes checks to Mr. Jones to pick up at his house at the address above as payment for the property. Mr. Pizzuto told police that he noticed sometime earlier this week that his bank statements have had more than one check being cashed by Mr. Jones. Mr. Pizzuto believes that Mr. Jones would grab blank checks when he picked up the check from the house and fill them out to cash. Mr. Pizzuto will get in touch with his bank to claim these as fraud. Police contacted the Fraud Division but due to Mr. Pizzuto not witnessing these claims or having enough information about the suspect. No further action was taken.

On 05/12/2021 at 15:17 hours, Officer Kelley (86049) wrote a continuation/supplement for a Counterfeiting/Forgery at 4809 Elmo Ave. Mr. Francesco Pizzuto called back at 12:10 hours to tell police that he had found more checks that Mr. Smith had cashed from a different bank account. The new total amount taken is $14,500. No further at this time.

21-048263 5/13/2021 3:30:00AM 290 Vandalism 3810 Rossville Blvd

On 05/13/2021 at 08:00 hours, Officer Gerity, Matthew (78344) responded to a Vandalism at 3810 Rossville Blvd. At approximately 0330hrs s, what appear to be, white males, trespass on the property of United Wrecker. These two suspects were clearly there to retake possession of a once stolen Silver in color 4Runner North Carolina registration [REDACTED]. The two suspects can be seen entering the alley way view S in direction walking N in direction, cutting the locks and entering the property just off camera. The two parties quickly enter the once stolen 4Runner (removed by units earlier from NCIC) and quickly start it. This lead officers to believe that based on the speed they were able to start the vehicle they had keys..

Officers attempted to make contact with the owner of the vehicle to make another auto Theft report but phone number provided went to voice mail after a few rings.

At this time it is unclear whom that suspects are other than what the camera shows; 2 white males 1 wearing tan pants, sneakers and a dark shirt while the other is unclear from camera footage. United Wrecker does not want to press charges at this time for the vandalism but rather wanted the incident documented for future reference.
