Ms. Perkins informed me she discovered the suspect had removed approximately fifty-six dollars from her CashApp account and one hundred dollars from her First Horizon bank account. Ms. Perkins retrieved documents from her phone carrier showing the numbers the alleged suspect communicated with. Given such, Ms. Perkins contacted them and believes an individual known as Renee Taylor-Beard took her phone and the money from her accounts. I discovered an individual named Angela Renee Taylor who matched the description shown to police by Ms. Perkins. I reviewed video surveillance from Waffle House, however, did not see Ms. Perkins or the suspect on video. I reviewed multiple days and times around the day and time the phone was thought to have been left. Ms. Perkins requested a police report made to be given to her bank accounts.
