20-108531 10/25/2020 6:25:00PM 23C Shoplifting 490 Greenway View Dr

On 10/25/2020 at 18:30 hours, Officer C. Darling responded to a Shoplifting at 490 Greenway View Dr. (Walmart). LP employee Timothy Dunn and I observed a white male select clothing items from inside the store and put them on. We then observed the male exit the store passing all points of sale without paying for the items. I made contact with the male in the parking lot. The male had got into the front passenger seat of his girlfriends car. The male was asked to step out of the car and I observed in plain view a bag of suspected marijuana. The female driver was asked what the bag contained and she stated that it contained weed and that it was the males. I then confiscated the suspected marijuana and escorted the male to the LP office. The male stated that the marijuana was his girlfriends and he was sorry for stealing the clothes. Once at the LP office the male was identified as Justin Carter and walmart recovered their property. Justin Carter stated that his girlfriends name is Jenifer Smith with an approximate age of 26. Mr. Carter stated that he is currently homeless and sleeps in the vehicle with his girlfriend in motel/hotel parking lots. Walmart did not wish to prosecute in this matter. I attempted to make contact with Jenifer Smith in the parking lot but she was not found. The marijuana was turned into property for disposal. No further

20-108881 10/26/2020 7:24:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2219 E 26th Street Ct

On 10/26/2020 at 17:05 hours, Officer Christopher Liberto (79560) and Officer Rogers (86062) responded to a carjacking at 2219 E 26th Street Ct. I arrived on scene and spoke with the complainant (Alexus Careathers). Ms. Careathers stated that her ex boyfriend (Jarrett Watson) had tried to steal her car after he came to her home and was banging on the door and shouting for her to come out. Mr. Watson and Ms. Careathers at one time shared the vehicle and he was allowed to drive. Based on this information I determined that a carjacking did not occur. Ms. Careathers stated she no longer wanted to allow him to drive her vehicle (Black Nissan Rogue). When asked if Mr. Watson had ever hit her or hurt her Ms. Careathers stated he had "put his hands on her" but she did not believe he was ever going to hurt her. I could not see any marks or signs of a struggle between the two parties. Mr. Watson was not on scene when police arrived and could not be located in the surrounding areas. Nothing Further at this time.

20-109015 10/26/2020 11:35:00PM 91Z Field Interview 4100 Fagan St

On 10/26/2020 at 23:37 hours, Officer Mark Livesay (79884) reported a memo at 4100 Fagan St. Police attempted a traffic stop on a white Chevrolet Trail Blazer at this location. When the vehicle stopped the driver and front passenger fled on foot but the back passenger (Tarek Baker) stayed with the vehicle. Police interviewed Mr. Baker and found no laws being broken by him. The vehicle ignition system was drilled out and the vehicle clearly hot wired. There were 3 live bullets in the back seat floor board behind the driver's seat of the vehicle as well. There was an attempt to locate the owner of the vehicle but it was reported that the owner is homeless and there was no way to locate the owner at this time to find out if the vehicle is stolen (it hadn't been reported to this point). The vehicle was towed by A-1 towing since it is suspected of being stolen and it was used in the crime of evading police. At this time there is no suspect information of the parties who fled due to it being dark and a poorly lit area.

9231 Lee Hwy

On 10/27/2020 at 13:30 hours, Officer J. Cuba (79521) reported a memo at The Samaritan Center located at 9231 Lee Hwy. Upon arrival, police made contact with the business manager, Mr. Keith Heming. Mr. Heming stated that one of the employees stopped a female party who was trying to walk out of the business with merchandise that she had not paid for. Once the female party was stopped she was allowed to pay for the merchandise. The female party kept arguing with the employees and she was given her money back and asked to leave the business. Police then made contact with the female party, Ms. Kity Acosta. Ms. Acosta stated that she started arguing with one of the business employees because they were trying to charge her $6 for an item that had a $4 price tag on it. Then Ms. Acosta stated that the employee stated that Ms. Acosta was trying to steal from the business because she was Hispanic. Ms. Acosta stated that at this point, one of the managers came out and asked her to leave the business. Mr. Heming stated that the business was not going to press charges against Ms. Acosta, but they wanted her trespassed from the property. No further.

20-109187 10/27/2020 1:51:00PM 23C Shoplifting 7421 Commons Blvd

On 10/27/2020 at 14:00 hours, Officer B. baker (79856) responded to a Shoplifting at 7421 Commons Blvd. I spoke with Mrs. Deeter who works with loss prevention. Mrs. Deeter stated that a black male in his early 50's wearing black pants, black and gold shirt, and a gray colored hat stole several items. Mrs. Deeter and another employee watched the suspect conceal Dewalt batteries on his person after using a Husky utility knife from the store to remove the packaging. Mrs. Deeter approached the suspect after he passed the final point of sale, but the suspect pushed through the door, knocking it off track. The suspect then left in a black pickup with a busted rear passenger window that had plastic on it. While I was speaking with Mrs. Deeter 1C6 responded to a shoplifting at Academy Sports that happened moments after the Home Depot shoplifting. The suspect and vehicle description were the same on both calls. The registered owner of the suspect vehicle is Anthony Torrey, whom was located near his residence. Mr. Anthony did not appear to be the suspect from the camera footage from either store. Police attempted to question Mr. Anthony about the whereabouts of his truck, and who might be using it. Mr. Anthony declined to complain with the investigation and was released. Nothing further at this time.

Ms. James stated she was in verbal disorder with her boyfriend Gavin Suggs. Ms. James stated at no time did their argument become physical, but Ms. James requested Mr. Suggs to be removed from her residence. While talking with Ms. James I did not observe any indication that anything physical had occurred. Ms. James stated Mr. Suggs is listed on the lease for the residence. I told Ms. James that if Mr. Suggs is a legal resident at the above address that officers could not force him to leave. Ms. James stated Mr. Suggs' grandmother was enroute to pick him up from the residence.

I attempted to talk with Mr. Suggs, to which he did not wish to talk with police.

Based off of the information provided by Ms. James, no criminal offense had taken place therefore Mr. Suggs was not forced to interact with police while he was legally in his own residence.

No police action was taken and there was nothing further to report at this time.

20-110251 10/30/2020 9:30:00AM 250 Counterfeiting/Forgery 4614 58 Hwy

On 10/30/2020 at 09:27 hours, Officer C. Glenn (60757) responded to a Counterfeiting/Forgery at 4614 58 Hwy.

Ms. McCarson says that on 28 Oct. 2020, an unknown party entered the Suntrust Bank at the aforementioned location and used her stolen ID and canceled debit card to withdraw $4,000 from her bank account.

She says that her purse had been stolen while in Florida which contained her South Carolina ID and her Suntrust debit card. She says that she had closed the Suntrust bank account and debit card and opened a new account. She says that the teller failed to check the ID and because the debit card was canceled the teller put her new account number on the withdrawal slip. By so doing the unknown party was able to get the money from her account.

Ms. McCarson is clear that since Suntrust is returning the money to her account, Suntrust will be shown as the victim.
