19-061093                      6/23/2019 12:01:00AM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      5216 Fagan St

On 06/23/2019 at 00:23 hours, Officer LOCKHART (68408) reported a memo at 5216 Fagan St. Police spoke with Mr. Napoleon Jackson. He stated that he and his wife Ms. Brenda Frieson, had thrown a birthday party for their daughter. Ms. Frieson's sister was intoxicated and Ms. Frieson wanted Mr. Jackson to drive her sister home even though he was too drunk to drive. When Mr. Jackson refused to drive drunk, Ms. Frieson became irate and they began to argue and he called police. Mr. Jackson decided it would be best if he stayed at a friend's house for the night and police gave him a ride. Nothing further at this time.

19-061101                      6/23/2019 12:54:00AM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      1400 Ivy St

On 06/23/2019 at 00:55 hours, I, Officer Blansit #421 was traveling north coming to a stop sign on N Highland Park at E 5th St, when I observed a gray Toyota SUV traveling east in the 1400 block of E 5th St without any headlights on. The Toyota turn south onto N Highland Park. I got turned around in an effort to traffic stop the vehicle. Once I was turned around, traveling south in the 500 block of N Highland Park, I observed the Toyota turn west onto the 1400 block of Ivy St. Once I was able to see the Toyota on Ivy St, all doors were open and what appeared to be 4-5 black females were running in different directions away from the vehicle. Once I was behind the vehicle on Ivy St, there was no one around. I had not initiated my blue lights before the vehicle was abandoned.

While inventorying the vehicle, I found paperwork inside the glove box showing that the vehicle had been recently purchased on 06/14/2019 by Aubrie Poe (a white female). I attempted to contact Miss Poe by the phone number listed on her purchase paperwork but was unable to reach her. I also found a white and gold iphone in the driver's floorboard. The iphone was locked but I observed the background to be a picture of a black female. Due to the recent purchaser being a white female and what I observed to be black females running from the vehicle, the iphone was taken to property and put under property number 19-2894. I observed no damage to the vehicle. The vehicle was towed by Doug Yates Towing. Nothing further to report.

19-062418                      6/26/2019 2:40:00PM                      91Z Field Interview    888 Arlington Ave

On 06/26/2019 at 14:40 hours, Officer K.Downs (68391) reported a memo at 888 Arlington Ave. I observed a 1995 Gold Nissan Maxima parked illegally on Milne Street. I observed two black males sitting in the driver and front passenger seats and I observed Gabriel Moorer walk down to the car as if he were going to get inside. Once Moorer saw me he backed away from the car and all parties exited the vehicle. After observing the parties acting suspiciously I turned around and decided to get out with the driver of the vehicle.

None of the parties were being cooperative with Police, but I was eventually able to find out who the driver and front seat passenger were.

19-062911                      6/27/2019 7:21:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      409 Signal Mountain Rd

On 06/27/2019 at 19:21 hours, Officer Luke Simon 971 conducted a traffic stop at 409 Signal Mountain Rd. While on patrol officers observed a red sport bike pass their patrol vehicles. Officers were unable to locate a registration visible on the sport bike. Contact was made with the bike and the rider, Brooks Jones in the parking lot of Kamatsu. Once contact was made with Mr Jones officers confirmed there was in fact a license plate attached to the frame and spring area behind the rear tire of the motorcycle. Officers informed Mr Jones his plate was improperly displayed to the motorcycles. Officers have been out with Mr Jones in the past due to not displaying a registration on the vehicle. During the last interaction with Mr Jones, he did not have insurance, registration or a proper motorcycle endorsement. Mr Jones has since fixed all of these issues. Due to the motorcycle being registered with a tag improperly displayed, Mr Jones was issued a warning for this offense and informed he must make the plate visible with the registration displayed horizontally on the motorcycle and the plate vertical facing the rear to be visible. Mr Jones was argumentative about his interpretation of the law. However, he was still issued a warning for the offense. Mr Jones was informed he could request a copy of the law from the courts if he wished to do so. Nothing further at this time.

At the time of dispatch, I was informed of an Asian male on a bicycle looking into the store at the clerk and making her feel unsafe. Upon arrival, I made contact with the male, identified his as Yunyong Phouvanh and he informed me that the clerk and people outside the store made him feel as if he was a criminal and that they looked at him negatively. I informed him that the people didn't feel safe either with his behavior and it would be best for him to leave the scene and not come back; to which he agreed to do. I then spoke to the store clerk Elisha Daugherty. Elisha stated that Yunyong would look in the store and just smile at her and she felt like she was being looked at by a peeping tom. I informed her that Yunyong appeared slightly confused and felt frustrated with how people were viewing and treating him and that he wouldn't be back. I did inform her however that if he did come back to call for police assistance again, and a different end result may occur.

19-063618                      6/29/2019 4:06:00PM                      91Z Field Interview                      100 Ascension St

On 06/29/2019 at 16:06 hours, Officer J. Waltero (79887) while on patrol, I noticed a blue Ford Focus [REDACTED] parked facing west on the left side of 100 Ascension St. Upon running the tag it did not come back stolen but the vehicle owner info was a possible Hispanic male. I looked inside the vehicle and immediately noticed a fabric handgun holster wedged between the center console and the passenger seat. I noticed documentation on the passenger seat with the name, Stephen Taylor and his last four of social security. The documentation appeared to be linked to Walmart and I further noticed a name tag hung on the rear view mirror with the name "Taylor". Upon looking up the information gathered with social, I had a return for a Stephen Taylor with suspended license and negative warrants.

This road has been used to ditch stolen vehicles. There is only one house at the end of the road on the right. The vehicle was at the very beginning of the road on the left as you turn into it. The vehicle had to cracks on the windshield and a few dents around the vehicle.

19-064620                      6/24/2019 12:00:00AM                      26A False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game                      4701 Wilson Rd

On 07/02/2019 at 12:36 hours, PIT McMahan (61444) responded to a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 4701 Wilson Rd at Paragon Printing. The complainant is the manager/owner there and he said that on 6/24/19 at 10:50 am, one of his Sales people received an email. He said that the email appeared to be legitimate to the Sales person and it was apparently from one of the company's employees (Pete Hautem) who is based from Summerville, SC. The email was requesting that the employee's bank info be changed and that the direct deposit for his pay checks be sent to a different bank account with Greendot bank. The Sales person then did make the change on the company's files and $750 has been sent to that account since then. Later last week, he said that the employee contacted the company and asked why he had not received his paycheck and that's when it was discovered that the email and bank account deposit was a scam. The complainant said that the email was not from the employee's email account/address and it contained a copy of a blank check with account numbers and routing numbers as well. It was reported by Communications that the complainant had spoken with Det Petty about this matter. This report was taken by phone.

19-064657                      6/28/2019 3:00:00PM                      91Z Property Lost                      1001 Airport Rd

On 07/02/2019 at 14:34 hours, PIT McMahan (61444) responded to a Property Lost at 1001 Airport Rd at Budget Car Rental. The victim said that she had rented a car from there and she dropped it back off there last Friday around 3 pm. Later that night, when she got home in California at about 8:30 pm, she realized she had left her wallet in the car. She said that she has since checked with Budget and they could not locate her wallet and that same car has already been rented out again. She said that she had a GPS tracker on it but it still showed it being at Budget, so she thinks it has been turned off. Therefore, it is unknown at this time exactly what happened to the wallet. This report was taken by phone.
