21-058948                      6/8/2021 4:15:00AM                      23C Shoplifting                      4900 Brainerd Rd

On 06/08/2021 at 04:25 hours, Officer Perocchi, Tyler (79535) responded to a shoplifting incident at 4900 Brainerd Road, the Circle K. Police spoke with the clerk, Noel Daniels, who explained while he was working an older black male came into the store wearing a reflective work vest and a hat (unknown color) and grabbed 3 cases of Budweiser beer (valuing at $19.65 each, total $58.95) and waked out of the front door. The suspect got into a blue, 4 door Nissan and fled west on Brainerd Road toward the tunnels. Daniels explained the store has video cameras but he does not have access to it and when the store manager comes in and they can provide it to police they may call us back to identify the suspect. Police checked the area but could not find a vehicle matching that description. Daniels told police the store is interested in prosecuting for the theft, and police will follow up with the video evidence when a store employee calls them back when it's available.

On 06/10/2021 at 14:10 hours, Officer Ampthor (73492) reported a memo at 5100 Brainerd Rd. Police spoke with Ms Billie Piner who was having issues with Mr. Jason Reid. Ms Piner had a vehicle dropped off to have work done on it at 5100 Brainard Rd. The vehicle had been at the location since 3/29/2021 for repairs. Mr. Reid had documentation where repairs were authorized and owner was notified of progression on vehicle. The documentation is by phone recording and written receipt. While there the vehicle had been repossessed off the lot. Ms Piner found out the vehicle had been repossessed when Title Max notified her about her other vehicle. Ms. Piner believes Mr. Reid had failed to do work on the vehicle and staled for time it got repossessed for he planned to buy it from the auction house. When the vehicle was repossessed it did not have the transmission in it along with other parts that were being worked on. Ms. Piner wished to get the vehicle parts back from Mr. Reid who had since repaired the parts for the vehicle but had not been able to install them due to the vehicle not being on location. Mr. Reid stated he had not been paid for the services at this time. Ms. Piner is currently in possession of the vehicle which she got back from the auction house.

On 06/11/2021 at 13:00 hours, I was contacted by Lt. Jones via e-mail regarding an incident at the Hamilton County Health Department vaccination site.

The site supervisor reported that on the afternoon of June 10th a white female driving a gray SUV (no further description) drove into the vaccine tent. The female had interaction with the staff which they found to be suspicious. Their account is in the attached documentation.

The suspect then "served" the staff with a fictitious cease and desist order before leaving.

I will be contacting additional resources to see if the individual can be identified.

I had CPD Intel take a look at SM on the subject. Attached are some examples of what they could find. Clearly the subject aligns with topics in the realm of sovereign ideology. CPD Intel and TN HS could not identify any associations or other SM material that would indicate violent intent. NFA

21-060359                      6/11/2021 12:00:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      2014 Gunbarrel Rd

On 06/11/2021 at 14:29 hours, Officer Moser (60250) responded to a miscellaneous report at Cheddar's Restaurant located at 2014 Gunbarrel Rd. I spoke to the complainant, Anna Laster who stated she was in her vehicle when a vehicle pulled into the parking space to the right of her vehicle. Ms. Laster stated the male driving the other vehicle (James Brown) got out of his vehicle and his door struck the right passenger side of her vehicle.

Ms. Laster stated she told the male that he struck her vehicle and he told her that he did not and cursed at her and went inside the restaurant.

I spoke to the driver of the other vehicle, James Brown who stated he pulled into a parking space and a vehicle to his left (Ms. Laster's vehicle) was parked on the parking space line and it was hard for him to get out of his vehicle but he did not think that he struck the other vehicle and if he did it was not intentional and he did not see any damage to either vehicle.

Police looked at both vehicles and did not notice any damage to either vehicle.

Police checked with the management of the restaurant and they stated they do not have cameras that show the front of the business where the vehicle were parked.

On 06/11/2021 at 23:16 hours, Officer M. Recaido #965 was on routine patrol in the 2100 block of E 23rd St. when officers noticed an argument on the side of the road. Officers got out with the parties, identified as Ms. Dominique Marbury, Ms. Shannon McGinnis, and Mr. Kenneth Ray. Ms. Marbury stated that Ms. McGinnis approached her and accused her of stealing items from her vehicle. Ms. Marbury told Ms. McGinnis that was not possible since she was in jail last night. Ms. Marbury then noticed that Ms. McGinnis pulled out a knife, and she began to back away. Ms. McGinnis stated that she was walking when Ms. Marbury started yelling at her, saying that she was the reason she went to jail. Ms. Marbury then threw her Burger King drink on Ms. McGinnis and her son Mr. Ray, then spit on both of them. Ms. McGinnis did state that she had a pair of pliers in her hand during the altercation, but it was for her son's safety. Ms. McGinnis then stated that she threw the pliers on the ground when officers began to pull up. Officers were unable to locate a knife or a pair of pliers. Medic 11 arrived on the scene to help sanitize Ms. McGinnis and Mr. Ray. Neither party wished to press charges and agreed to go their separate ways. No further at this time.

21-060640                      6/12/2021 1:55:00AM                      23C Shoplifting                      1330 E 3rd St

On 06/12/2021 at 02:02 hours, Officer Adam Krystaponis (75508) responded to a Shoplifting at 1330 E 3rd St. Upon arrival, I spoke with Mr. Christopher Peace, the clerk. Mr. Peace stated that another coworker (who had since left the property) told him that a black male and black female stole 4 cases of beer, but he did not witness this. Mr. Peace was unable to describe the suspects, or the beer they took, other than he was told it was 4 cases.

This was called in by the security company that Speedway uses. While on scene, they called in again, reporting a black female in the store threatening to slap an employee. I was actively speaking with the only employee in the store, and he stated no one had caused any sort of disorder other than the shoplifting.
