Mr. Hebda then stated when the trailer went over the wall it hit Ms. Ivey's vehicle causing extensive damage to the front of her vehicle and the trailer. Ms. Ivey was notified and came down from her room in a different hotel. All parties involved were given a complaint card. BWC was worn and activated during this call for service.

21-075923 7/20/2021 5:59:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 300 Interstate 75 Nb Rd

On 07/20/2021 at 06:16 hours, Officer K. Allen (123) reported a memo an abandoned auto at 300 Interstate 75 Nb. I was informed by dispatch that the complainant, Ms. Grace Ellis, observed a van stopped in the fast on 75 Nb.

I arrived in the area and located a blue Toyota Carola Matrix (FL, [REDACTED]) parked on the right shoulder. The vehicle was still running with the keys in the ignition however there were no occupants. The front driver side of the Toyota appeared to have new damage which left the vehicle inoperable. Upon further investigation I found that the on-view registration did not belong to the vehicle. I ran the VIN (2T1LR32E23C038045) and received no stolen returns. The vehicle was a traffic hazard due to the wet road conditions and heavy traffic. The car was towed by Don Yates Wrecker Service. No further police action was taken at this time.

21-075928 7/20/2021 6:59:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 6220 Shallowford Rd

On 07/20/2021 at 06:59 hours, Officer Ricky Ballard (0060157) reported a memo at 6220 Shallowford Rd. Upon arrival, I spoke with the RP Eric Pitts. Mr. Pitts stated his girlfriend, Lacey Rogers had threatened to use mace on him. I spoke with Ms. Rogers who reported she did not, but Mr. Pitts was the one making threats to use the mace. Mr. Pitts reported in order to help keep the peace between them, he would leave the residence for while. Mr. Pitts left without incident. No further police assistance was needed.

21-075930 7/19/2021 8:00:00PM 240 MVT/Passenger Vehicle 2023 Raulston St

On 7/20/21 at 0922 hours, I (FTO Clemons #827) responded to 2501 Milne St for a stolen vehicle recovery report. At the scene, I located a Chevy Silverado (TN-[REDACTED]) which confirmed as stolen through NCIC. Dispatch attempted to reach the owner by phone but was unable to. Ault Towing responded to the scene to recover the vehicle. Several personal items including the paper copy of the vehicle registration and several blueprints were found on the ground near the vehicle and the key fob was found destroyed under and around the vehicle. The left rear tire was flat as well but no other damage was seen. There were several tools in the bed of the truck including an air compressor, circular saw, nail gun, extension cords, and some hand tools. I attempted to dust for fingerprints inside the vehicle but was unsuccessful in locating any useful lifts. There is no new suspect information at this time. I requested NCIC to remove the stolen status for this vehicle from NCIC. Nothing further to report.

21-075942 7/20/2021 8:00:00AM 91Z Suspicious Activity 1011 Gadd Rd

On 07/20/2021 at approximately 08:00 hours, Officer M Estock (82259) reported an abandoned vehicle at 1011 Gadd Rd. Upon arrival, I observed a Red Lexius CT200h displaying GA () parked in the middle of the road way beside the 700 building of the apartment complex. Both driver window and driver's side rear passenger window were rolled down. The vehicle was unoccupied and actively running while parked and the keys for the vehicle were still inside. A nearby resident in the complex shouted to me that the vehicle was as I observed for approximately an hour prior to my arrival. With these observations added with the fact it has been raining actively throughout the night, the vehicle appeared to have been stolen and the suspect fled the vehicle and location for unknown reasons. I moved the vehicle out of the roadway to avoid further resident traffic obstruction. I notified dispatch of my findings and was informed the registered owner is a Mr. Zachary Powell who's address is not listed at this location; however the vehicle was not listed as stolen. I notified the on-duty courtesy officer and will attempt to make contact with apartment management to see if Mr. Powell resides at this location. If I am unable to locate Mr. Powell, I will turn in the vehicle keys into Chattanooga Property for safekeeping. Until a contact with Mr. Powell is made, I will keep my findings as an abandoned vehicle.

No further at this time.

21-075989 7/20/2021 10:00:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 1521 Hickory Valley Rd

On 07/20/2021 at 10:00 hours, Officer Ricky Ballard (0060157) reported a memo at 1521 Hickory Valley Rd.

Upon arrival, I spoke with the RP, Ivana Henderson. Ms. Henderson reported her neighbor, whom resides in apartment 501, came to the door with a gun in his hand, after she (Ms. Henderson) knocked on his door to ask about an item he left hanging on her front door knob.

Ms. Henderson stated on 7/19/21, she accidentally dropped a gallon of milk she bought from the store. Ms. Henderson reported she wrapped the milk in a plastic bag and sat it outside of the complex building. Ms. Henderson stated after leaving for some time and coming back, she forgot to get the milk to bring it inside. Ms. Henderson stated after realizing this, she opened her front door to get it but found someone had place the dripping milk on her door knob. Ms. Henderson reported the only person who saw her put the milk outside was the residence of apt. 501. Ms. Henderson also stated another neighbor told her he witness the residence of apt. 501 place the milk on her door knob. Ms. Henderson reported this is why she went to talk to residence of apt. 501. Ms. Henderson reported at the time residence of 501 came out with the gun, he did not threaten her verbal nor pointed the gun at her, just held it to his side with his finger on the trigger. Ms. Henderson stated the only thing he said was " Are you the girl that had her car repo" Ms. Henderson reported she replied to him that has nothing to do with this incident. Ms. Henderson stated the man then went back inside. Ms. Henderson stated she did file a complaint with the complex management as well.

21-075998 7/18/2021 10:30:00PM 290 Vandalism 2341 Shallowford Village Dr

On 07/20/2021 at 10:27 hours, PIT McMahan (61444) responded to a Vandalism by calling the victim who was at 2341 Shallowford Village Dr at Comfort Inn & Suites hotel. I spoke to the victim over the phone who said that he had his ATV in an Open Trailer, which he left parked there Sunday night around 10:30 pm. The trailer stayed there overnight and he then left the hotel at 9:30 am the next morning (yesterday) when he went home with it to Florida. While unloading the ATV off the trailer this morning at home, he discovered that the key switch on it was messed up and there were some wires hanging down and he believes someone may have possibly been trying to steal it. Also, he said there was some grease around the key switch but no visible fingerprints. He said even though this wasn't discovered until unloading the ATV at home this morning, this had to have happened there at the hotel. He said he spoke to hotel staff but he was told they didn't have video of this. Also, he said he had heard there were other possible break-ins in the area and an officer had been by at some point. He had no estimate yet but he said it could possibly cost around $1500 to repair it.

21-076006 7/20/2021 11:00:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2810 E 46th St

On 07/20/2021 at 11:10 hours, Officer Sanchez (73514) reported a memo at 2810 E 46th St. Upon arrival I spoke with the complainant, Scott Vetter (redacted), who explained that he was in a verbal disorder with his neighbor, Marie Erwin (redacted). Scott was upset because Marie drove up to the house in her car and honked her horn so that her sister would hear and come outside. Scott was upset because Marie honked her horn and so he started a verbal argument with her. Both parties stated that the argument was only verbal. Police told both parties that nothing illegal had transpired, and Scott was wrong for telling Marie that she could not honk her horn. Scott was very upset. Marie got in the car and left with her sister. There is nothing further.
